Example:

Last Saturday I got up, I had breakfast and did my homework. Then I went to the living room to watch my favourite TV programme because it was raining outside. I was watching TV when the phone rang. It was my friend, my best friend. He wanted to go skating in the park with me. I asked for permission and my mum said "Yes!". I was really happy, so I put on my new skates and went to meet my friend in the park.

When I arrived, my friend was skating with other boys and girls and he didn't say "Hello". I was a little bit sad, but I started skating. Skating is really fun! While I was skating, my friend fell off. I went to help him and he didn't recognise me! "Who are you?" – he asked. "I'm John. Your BEST FRIEND!" – I shouted. "Sorry John! I am not wearing my glasses today! I didn't see you!" – he laughed. I helped my friend to stand up and we continued skating and having fun! Finally, it was a very good day!
