

Write S or O in the squares, then draw a line to join the question to its answer

- 1 Look at the book cover and read the beginning of the book review. Match the questions with the answers. Which are subject questions (S)? Which are object questions (O)? Write S or O.

BOOK REVIEW

The new book by the world-famous author P.S. Mason is set in Japan. The main character, Kimiko, lives in Tokyo. She is an elementary school teacher. She teaches eight-year-old children.

- 1 Who wrote this book?
- 2 What did P. S. Mason write?
- 3 Who lives in Tokyo?
- 4 Who does Kimiko teach?

☐
☐
☐
☐

- a Eight-year-old children
- b Kimiko
- c P. S. Mason
- d A book about Japan

3 Read and complete the puzzle. Then, write two questions for the sentences.

George called Fred, but Bill called George. Jack called Bill, and Fred called Jack.

a George called Fred.

Who called Fred?

Who did George call?

b Bill called George.

c Jack called Bill.

d Fred called Jack.

4 Write questions about the underlined words.

a Mike ate the chocolates.

b Susie talked to Rafaello.

c Margot made her own lunch.

d The earthquake damaged the house.