

With my Prophet in Paradise Part 1

1. Rabi'ah bin Ka'b Al-Aslami RA asked the Prophet PBUH for:

For Extra money to pay Zakah His companionship in Jannah
For his companionship to perform Hajj Other

2. "multiplying your prostrations" means:

To increase the number of Wudu' To increase the number of Sujud,
To increase the number of Charitable acts None

3. Obligatory prayers (Fardh) such as

Nawafil Ad- Duha Al- Fajr Istikhara

4. This Hadith teaches me:

To be ambitious and seek the highest ranks either in this world and the hereafter.

To prove my sincere love for our Prophet PBUH by taking actions rather "mere" words.

Multiplying Salah brings me closer to Allah SW and makes me among the companions of the Prophet PBUH in Jannah

All o the above

5. Paradise is a place of Worship. Asking for forgiveness. Never ending happiness.

6. Paradise has levels and ranks according to man's deeds.

True

False

7. Paradise is inherited by

All people. The righteous as the result of their good deeds.

The poor non-believers

8. What are the ways that lead to Jannah?

Treating people in the best way. Leaving arguments although you are correct.

Being proud of yourself. Keeping away from lies

9. Good manners with people is a way to Paradise.

False, because we need to treat people the way they treat us.

True, because we are all the creation of Allah.

No, because some people are not of my type.

Good manners only with the good people.

10. We will enter Paradise with only our deeds.

We do not need deeds to enter Paradise.

Although we work hard, but we need the mercy of Allah

Yes, if our scales of good deeds are empty
