What career would you like to have?

It was Career Day at school. Sofiya explained to Bobbie and Robby that a career is a job and that Career Day was a time for the children to think about their future jobs. On Career Day, the students meet people with different jobs. The teacher asked the children to draw pictures of people doing different jobs.

When it was time to explain what each student had drawn, Bobbie went first. She drew a picture of a surgeon. Robby went next. He drew a picture of a hotel manager. Noi was after Robby, and he drew a picture of a football player. Last was Sofiya. She drew a picture of a fighter pilot.

Noi started to laugh at Sofiya because Sofiya's picture was of a female fighter pilot. In the end, it was Noi who was surprised. The surgeon, the hotel manager, the professional athlete and the fighter pilot were all women.
