

Oxford Exam Trainer B1

Unit 1 Family and Relationships

Reading

1. Match the words with their definitions.

1	concept	A	feeling uncomfortable or shy in an awkward situation
2	envy	B	an inability to stop doing or using something, especially something harmful
3	embarrassment	C	an unpleasant effect of something
4	side effect	D	a person that you have met but do not know well
5	addiction	E	an occasion when two or more people or things communicate with or react to each other
6	interaction	F	to wish that you had something that another person has
7	acquaintance	G	a principle or idea

2. Complete the sentences with the words from exercise 1.

- 1) I could have died of _____.
- 2) The man in the story starts to _____ his friend's single lifestyle.
- 3) Chemotherapy can have some very unpleasant _____.
- 4) Experts fear the game could lead to gambling _____.
- 5) I hope you'll consider me a friend and not just an _____.
- 6) The _____ of free speech is unknown to them.
- 7) She felt acute _____ at his behaviour.
- 8) He successfully battled his _____ to heroin.
- 9) There's not enough _____ between the management and the workers.
- 10) It was at the Taylors' party that I first made his _____.
- 11) I _____ her ability to talk to people she's never met before.
- 12) I don't think you have any _____ of the pain you have caused her.
- 13) Does this drug have any _____?
- 14) The play follows the _____ of three very different characters.