The birds have flown back and forth across the sky	After we had ridden horses for one hour, we stopped to enjoy lunch.	Even though the days were long, I have enjoyed seeing the animals	By the time the park closed, I had walked 2 miles.	I had hoped that we would see more koalas	After we get back home, I will have been here four times.
We will have heard all the stories by the time night falls	The koalas have eaten all the leaves off the trees.	By the time the day was over, we had walked all over the park	We will have toured for 3 hours by the time we get back to the gate	I have walked to the park before.	By the time we get back home, I will have eaten lunch
