

UNIT 2: AREAS AT THE AIRPORT

Vocabulary

Exercise 1: Match the words/phrases in column B with their correct definitions in column C. Write letters (A-J) into column A

A	B	C
1.	passport control	A. is a process of examining passports and other documents to make certain that someone can be allowed to enter the country.
2.	security check	B. is an area of an airport where incoming passengers arrive.
3.	immigration	C. is a place at an airport where passengers go to give in their bags and cases and have their tickets checked.
4.	departure lounge	D. is a place at an airport where passengers can buy goods at a cheaper price than usual.
5.	arrival hall	E. is an area at an airport that is used by passengers leaving or arriving by plane.
6.	currency exchange	F. is a process of checking that a person is not armed or carrying something dangerous.
7.	terminal	G. is an area at an airport where passengers wait before getting on a plane.
8.	baggage reclaim	H. is an office where passengers can change one currency into another.
9.	check-in desk	I. is a place at an airport where an officer checks passports.
10.	duty-free shop	J. is a place at an airport where passengers get their cases and bags when they arrive after flying.

Exercise 2: Complete each sentence with a suitable word/phrase basing on the first given letters

- When travelling by air, passengers need to go to the c_____ - _____ d_____ to get their boarding pass.
- Passengers should go into the d_____ l_____ to wait until their flight is called.
- A traveller went to the i_____ d_____ to ask if his flight was delayed or cancelled because he didn't hear any announcements about it.

4. Passengers need to have their passports checked at the i_____ to make certain that they can be allowed to enter a country.
5. Incoming passengers need to get into the a_____ h_____ at the airport after they get off the plane.
6. One of the good services that big hotels often offer to their guests is providing s_____ b_____ to take guests to the airport.
7. The c_____ officers inspect passengers' luggage in order to look for items not allowed to bring into the country.
8. People can turn dollars into euros at the c_____ e_____ at the airport.
9. If passengers want to buy something to eat before or after the flight, they can go to the f_____ c_____ at the airport.
10. Before boarding the plane, passengers have to go through the s_____ c_____ so the official can inspect that they are not armed or carrying something dangerous.

Grammar

Exercise 1: Complete each of the following sentences with one suitable preposition

1. Jane is waiting _____ you at the arrival terminal.
2. The shop is _____ the end of the corridor.
3. The duty-free shop is _____ the ground floor.
4. You continue on this road, then turn left _____ the intersection. It's on your right.
5. Where is the departure lounge? - Go straight ahead and turn right _____ the stop sign.
6. Passengers can find the immigration _____ the customs office and the baggage office to check their passports.
7. Excuse me! Do you know the directions _____ the domestic terminal? - Go down Dieppe Street for three blocks, then turn right.
8. Is there a newsagent's near here? - Yes, there's one _____ the departure terminal.
9. Could you tell me how to get to the check-in desk? - Go along this way, then turn right _____ the next corner.
10. Excuse me! I'm looking for the currency exchange. Where is it? - Take the stairs _____ the second floor, then turn left. It's next to the duty-free shop.

Exercise 2: Identify the error (A, B, C or D) in each sentence and correct it

1. We're (A) looking to (B) the International Terminal. Could (C) you show me the way to get (D) there?

2. A: Excuse me. What (A) do I get to (B) the security check?
B: Turn (C) right at the stop sign. It's on (D) your left.

3. A: Could (A) you show me how get (B) to the information desk, please?
B: Sure. Go (C) down the corridor to the end, then turn left. It's (D) in front of you.

4. A: Can you help me? I want to go (A) to the departure lounge.
B: Sure. Go straight down (B) this corridor and turn (C) right on (D) the intersection.

5. A: Excuse me, sir. I am looking (A) for the food court. Where (B) is it?
B: Take the stairs for (C) the second floor. Then, go straight ahead. It's on (D) your right.

6. A: Could you tell (A) me the way to (B) the immigration?
B: Yes, sir. Continue (C) in the same direction until you see Terminal A. Then turning (D) left. It's in front of you.

7. A: Do (A) you know the directions to the domestic terminal? Is it (B) near here?
B: Yes, it is. Go to (C) the stop sign. Don't turn there. Keep go (D) straight ahead. It's on your right.

8. A: Excuse me, sir. Is there (A) a duty-free shop near (B) here?
B: Yes, there's one (C) in the departure lounge. Go straight on then turn left on (D) the ATM. It is near Gate 6.

9. A: Do (A) you show me the way to (B) the check-in desk, please?

B: Yes, sir. Keep (C) straight ahead until you see Terminal D, then (D) turn right. It's in front of you.

10. A: Where (A) is the Currency Exchange from (B) here?

B: Yes, sir. Go straight ahead and turn right on (C) the stop sign, then turn left. It's (D) on your left.