

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

DIRECTIONS: Play, listen and read along to the story. Use the story to complete the sections

SECTION 1: Write R for realism (it is real and could happen) or F for fantasy (it is not real and could not happen) to tell if the picture is reality or fantasy.

SECTION 2: Circle R for realism or F for fantasy to tell if the sentence could be reality or fantasy.

1. Trinity has a sister named Sevyn.	R	F
2. Trinity has a flying bed.	R	F
3. The flying jar is magic.	R	F
4. Trinity has a good dream.	R	F

SECTION 3: Write two sentences from the story that can be realism and two sentences that can fantasy in the column below.

REALISM	FANTASY