Unit 5: Exercise 5

Read the text and choose the best job for each person.

My best friend, Emma, was very good at languages at school. She's studying English at university now. She loves talking to people and writing. She wants to be a [ ] when she finishes her course. Jim is another friend from school. He was always good at biology and is now studying medicine. He wants to be a [ ] after finishing university. I remember Laura very well. She sat in front of me in class. She was quite good at most subjects and she really liked being with small children. She is now working as a [ ] in a primary school. Dan was terrible at school. He hated all the subjects! When he left school, he went to college and learnt how to repair cars. He now works as a [ ]. Beth was always very good at French and German at school. She also likes meeting people from different countries. She now has a job as a [ ] at a big tourist information office.

LIVEWORKSHEETS