Hi Tom,
How's it going? Are you happy in your new job? I'm sorry I haven't been in touch recently, but I've been really busy working on a marketing campaign at work. We have a great new line of products but the designer isn't very well-known, so we weren't selling (1) units. My new boss works (2) than just about anybody I know and I'm learning (3) much from her. Since she took over the campaign, sales have increased more (4) than anyone expected and the designer's career has really taken off. He's working on new designs all the time, but it takes longer than you might think to get them into the shop. The (5) we can hope to see his new range is next spring. But for now sales are good, so we're happy.
Hope to see you soon.
Carrie

For many young travellers a road trip is an important rite of passage. The most challenging road trip of all must be

(1) Pan American Highway which is, according to the Guinness Book of Records, 'the longest motorable road in the world'. For road trippers the journey begins in Alaska and ends in Argentina. (2) an average of eight hours a day, it would take three months to complete, but most travellers take much longer because there is (3) much to see. The route encompasses some of the world's most spectacular landscapes and connects more (4) 20 countries – apart from one 100 km section of impenetrable rainforest, which travellers have to complete by air or sea. Every so often the dream of finishing the highway is resurrected, but environmentalists believe that if that happens it (5) to the destruction of the rainforest. So for road trippers that's probably one detour worth making.
