

Stone Soup

Author: Kama Einhorn

1. The visitor started making stone soup because
  - A. it would make everyone laugh.
  - B. no one would share their food.
  - C. the village stones were tasty.
  - D. it was almost time for dinner.

2. A man brought _____ the stone soup.
  - A. a cabbage to put in
  - B. a bag of pebbles for
  - C. his spoon for stirring
  - D. his children to taste

3. A boy brought
  - A. his sister to smell the soup.
  - B. his mother to the market.
  - C. some rocks for the soup.
  - D. some corn for the pot.

4. The visitor asked the people if
  - A. their town had a market.
  - B. he could live in their village.
  - C. his brothers were there.
  - D. they could share some food.

5. The villagers sang and danced all night because
  - A. they always sang and danced at night.
  - B. it was the night of their talent contest.
  - C. they were showing off in front of the visitor.
  - D. making the stone soup had made them happy.

6. When the stone soup was ready
- A. everyone thought it was tasty.
  - B. the villagers said it tasted awful.
  - C. the visitor burst out laughing.
  - D. no one wanted to eat their share.
7. Who added beans to the soup?
- A. The visitor put his own beans in the pot.
  - B. An old man brought the beans.
  - C. Everyone added a bean or two to the pot.
  - D. A girl put beans in the soup.
8. The people in the village
- A. did not share things.
  - B. did everything together.
  - C. were all good friends.
  - D. were very happy.
9. The visitor said that corn was
- A. good rabbit food.
  - B. tasty in stone soup.
  - C. cheap at the market.
  - D. easy to grow.
10. A woman had carrots to
- A. feed her pet rabbit.
  - B. sell at the market.
  - C. add to the stone soup.
  - D. plant in her fields.
-