Dinosaur Fossil

Direction : What is the correct sequence for creating a fossil? Number the process in order.

1 2 3 4 5

_____ Animal or plant life dies and rots.

_____ Chemicals in the bones start to change.

_____ The bone becomes hard and turns into a fossil.

_____ The minerals in the groundwater get into the bone.

_____ The animal or plant gets buried in dirt.

Summary : I Fill in the blanks with the right words to complete the summary.

rot | remains | fossils | chemicals | rock-like | turns into

Dinosaur bones are the _____of old dinosaur skeletons.

How do dinosaur bones get turned into _____? First, the flesh, muscles and internal organs _____ or are eaten by other animals.

Then the_____in the buried dinosaur's body go through a series of changes.

As the dinosaur bone _____ a fossil, it becomes a heavy, _____ version of the original dinosaur. One of the best dinosaur fossils, a full-sized T-Rex, can be found in a Chicago museum.

LIVEWORKSHEETS