1. Wash the _____ away with _____.
2. Put the sting in _____ water.
3. Make the person lie down with their _____ above the _____.
4. Use a _____ to stop the poison spreading.

2. Number the story in the right order:

A scorpion stings Mum's ankle. Jack washes the poison away, makes her lie down with her heart above the sting and uses a bandage to stop the poison spreading.

In Waikerie, they stay in a hotel. Jack reads The survival guide and complains that it isn't a real adventure.

At the hospital the nurse says 'well done' to Jack.

Natalie and her family leave Adelaide. They've got everything on their bikes.

They arrive in Sydney and lots of people welcome them. They raise 10,000 dollars for charity.

On the first day they see a kangaroo. Natalie helps Mum and Dad put up the tent. Jack reads his favourite book The survival guide.
