

CONDITIONAL CLAUSES (I AND II)

1. Match the sentences

If I were rich

I would tell you her name

She'd be perfectly happy

What would you do

If you say that again

Ann will be sorry

If you wash up

If I have enough time tomorrow

I'll come and see you.

I would buy a boat.

I will dry.

I will scream.

if Helen doesn't turn up.

if you lost your job?

if she had a car.

if I knew it.

2. Choose the correct tenses (present or will...).

I _____ (be) surprised if she _____ (manage) to sell that car.

I _____ (need) some money if we _____ (go) out tonight.

I _____ (miss) you if we _____ (move) to Wales.

It _____ (be) funny if Norman _____ (get) the job.

3. Put the correct verb forms (second conditional)

The kitchen _____ (look) better if we _____ (have) red curtains.

I _____ (be) sorry if we _____ (not see) her again.

It _____ (be) a pity if Andy _____ (not get) the job.

If I _____ (know) his address, I _____ (go) round and see him.