

DAY 46. PHRASAL VERBS

|    |                                                                                                                    | A           | B            | C            | D          |  |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|--------------|--------------|------------|--|
| 1  | I was so tired that I just _____ in the arm chair.                                                                 | flaked out  | broke up     | dropped out  | fell over  |  |
| 2  | The subject of sex equality seems to _____ in every discussion lesson in my school.                                | burst out   | zero in      | crop up      | harp on    |  |
| 3  | I don't know whether Peter would be interested in joining our Conservation Society. I'll _____ him _____ about it. | chat up     | sound out    | tell off     | spur on    |  |
| 4  | The new office block _____ well with its surroundings.                                                             | blends in   | stands out   | shaped up    | sets off   |  |
| 5  | "Isn't it terrible weather for spring?" _____ summer!                                                              | slope off   | snap up      | splash out   | roll on    |  |
| 6  | Our teacher tends to _____ certain subjects which she finds difficult to talk about.                               | boild down  | string along | skate over   | track down |  |
| 7  | It's a good idea to _____ people before taking them into your confidence.                                          | tumble to   | root out     | bank on      | size up    |  |
| 8  | Some people can just _____ a cold, but my colds seem to linger for weeks.                                          | shrug off   | cough up     | pull through | stamp out  |  |
| 9  | The man in the market was selling leather coats very cheaply; they were such bargains that they were soon _____.   | cleared off | done for     | bought out   | snapped up |  |
| 10 | I couldn't remember where I had left my car, when it suddenly _____ me that I didn't have a car any longer.        | dawned on   | ran into     | went through | tumbled to |  |