

Food Idioms Quiz

- Students who get scholarships to the top universities are the _____.
A- hot potatoes
B- bread and butter
C- cream of the crop
- I don't like going to the opera. It just isn't my _____.
A- cup of tea
B- piece of cake
C- gravy train
- Healthy children are _____. They don't just sit around all day.
A- souped up
B- cool as cucumbers
C- full of beans
- Every school has some _____, so be careful who you make friends with.
A- hot cakes
B- bad eggs
C- peach fuzz
- Putting all your _____ in one basket can be risky, you know?
A- cookies
B- eggs
C- apples
- I always know when he wants something. He tries to _____ before asking.
A- butter me up
B- spill the beans
C- bring home the bacon
- She likes to _____ in her classes with games & interesting activities.
A- spice things up
B- soup things up
C- butter things up
- I can never tell what Maria's thinking. She's _____.
A- the apple of my eye
B- in a nutshell
C- a hard nut to crack
- She didn't want to do it, but her friends kept _____.
A- egging her on
B- freezing her buns off
C- selling like hot cakes
- Take everything you read on the Internet with a _____ & you'll be okay.
A- piece of cake
B- pinch of salt
C- bun in the oven
- Even though uncle Barry drinks like a fish, he _____.
A- never drinks alcohol
B- never looks drunk
C- never drinks much
- Silvio had egg on his face after saying he was much better than all the other drivers, & then _____.
A- winning the race
B- coming last in the race
C- coming second in the race

Cool as a Cucumber

An influential person.

A lazy person who watches too much TV.

The chief person in a group.

A troublemaker.