

Unit 1 - Grammar 2

1. Complete the sentences with can, can't, could, or couldn't, and the verb in parentheses

Ex. You can't leave school. You're only 13! (leave)

1. I'm sorry, but you _____ your presentation today. (give)
2. I liked rainy school days because we _____ in the classrooms. (play)
3. You _____ your dog on vacation with you. The hotel welcome pets! (go)
4. I _____ to the beach yesterday because my aunt was visiting. (go)
5. My brother _____ into my bedroom when I'm studying because he's too noisy. (come)

2. Complete the second sentence so it means the same as first. Use the correct form of be allowed to.

You can't any mistakes. The teacher gets angry!

-> You aren't allowed to make any mistakes.

1. I couldn't borrow my sister's dress for the party.

-> I _____ borrow my sister's dress for the party.

2. Jenny hopes she can go on vacation with her friends this summer.

-> Jenny hopes she _____ go on vacation with her friends this summer.

3. We can't eat our lunches in the classroom.

-> We _____ eat our lunches in the classroom.

4. The teacher won't let you do your homework tomorrow. She's expecting it today.

-> You _____ do your homework tonight.

3. Can vs be allowed to: multiple choice - Choose the correct answers in the multiple choice questions.

1. Fortunately, I _____ watch the American horror yesterday night.
2. _____ go to Paris with you to see the exhibition next year?
3. As far as I know, female students _____ study at British universities since 1868.
4. Britney and Jane _____ come to Mike's birthday party because it started too late.
5. Excuse me, madam, _____ ask you a few questions about the purpose of your visit?
6. I'm sorry, Paul, but you _____ see Susan until you apologize to her parents.
7. We _____ leave the classroom after we had finished the revision test.
8. My grandpa _____ go for long walks anymore because he is not very healthy.
9. Martin, please, _____ use your new computer when it arrives from the shop?
10. I _____ go wherever I want if I tell my parents about it.
11. _____ go on the school trip to Italy in June?