Indications:

This individual reflection exercise begins with activities to identify the level of achievement acquired, and ends with a metacognitive reflection that connects the usefulness of what it has been learned throughout this first term, with the environment that surrounds them, strengthens and meaningful learning applied on various fields.

QUESTIONS1. Listen and select the correct image:

Diagram illustrating the listening exercise structure. It shows five rows of images, each preceded by a speaker icon indicating audio playback. The images are arranged in two columns: the left column contains three rows of a boy in a white shirt and tie, and two rows of a girl in a purple shirt and brown pants. The right column contains two rows of a soccer ball, and three rows of a group of three children (a girl in a patterned shirt, a boy in a red shirt, and a girl in a pink shirt) standing together. The bottom row of the right column shows a boy in a white shirt and tie standing next to a girl in a purple shirt and brown pants, with a red arrow pointing from the girl to the boy.
