

My quiz Proficiency: Reading, pg 51-52

Name: _____

Date: _____

Complete the sentences with the words (stumble, fortnight, simulation, commit, espouse, retrieve, cue, perspective, distinguish, concerning) and make any necessary changes:

1. It is hard to Between true and false memories.
2. In this memory quiz, when you hear the bell, that's you to answer.
3. I upon my old diary while I was looking for some other papers.
4. Laboratory Have shown the terrible injuries that can be sustained in a car accident when passengers do not wear seat belts.
5. We all numbers to memory, for example phone numbers or passwords.
6. The neuroscientist the theory that memory is connected to speech.
7. The crash happened two weeks ago, so not many people can remember the events clearly a later.
8. The doctor did some tests memory loss.
9. An adult's of events is very different to the view a child has.
10. Grandpa's ability to memories of recent events is weak and he remembers very little of what he does nowadays.