Traffic Signs, Signals and Symbols

Value: Traffic education

Did you know that...

- Traffic signs appeared in the Roman Times to help people understand the rules.
- In 1968, there was an attempt to unify all traffic signals around the world, but it was not accepted by some countries.
- Countries like the United States and the United Kingdom have signs with "tanks" as pictures to let you know that there is a military base.
- There are some strange signs like a high heel with the broken heel. This is to let ladies know the road is irregular or bad to walk with high heels.

- Challenge! How much do you know about traffic? Match the letter of the picture with the descriptions below. Compare your answers with a partner.

☐ accepted speed	☐ don't enter this road (one way)
☐ reduce the speed	☐ road construction ahead
☐ don't U turn	☐ a stop is ahead soon
☐ stop	☐ road does not have exit ahead
☐ school near

- Look at the pictures and write pedestrian crossing, driver and passenger on the lines given.
