KINGDOM MONERA

Monerans are unicellular, prokaryotic organisms found in a moist environment and lack a true nucleus.

Monera break down the dead matter and food in our digestive system.

Monera is found in the moist environment. They can be found in hot springs deep oceans, snow and as parasites in organisms.

Monerans are classified into three phyla:

- Archaebacteria
- Eubacteria
- Cyanobacteria

peptidoglycan

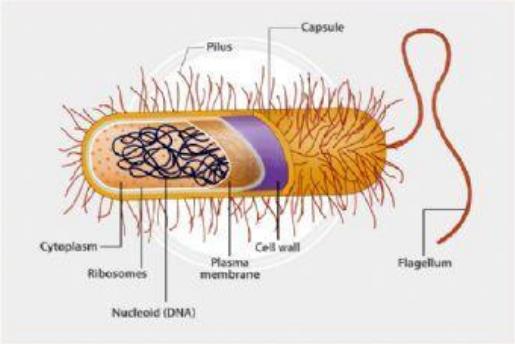

MONERA

1.What are Monerans?

2.How does Monera feed?

3.Where is Monera found?

4.What is the picture?

5.How are Monerans classified?

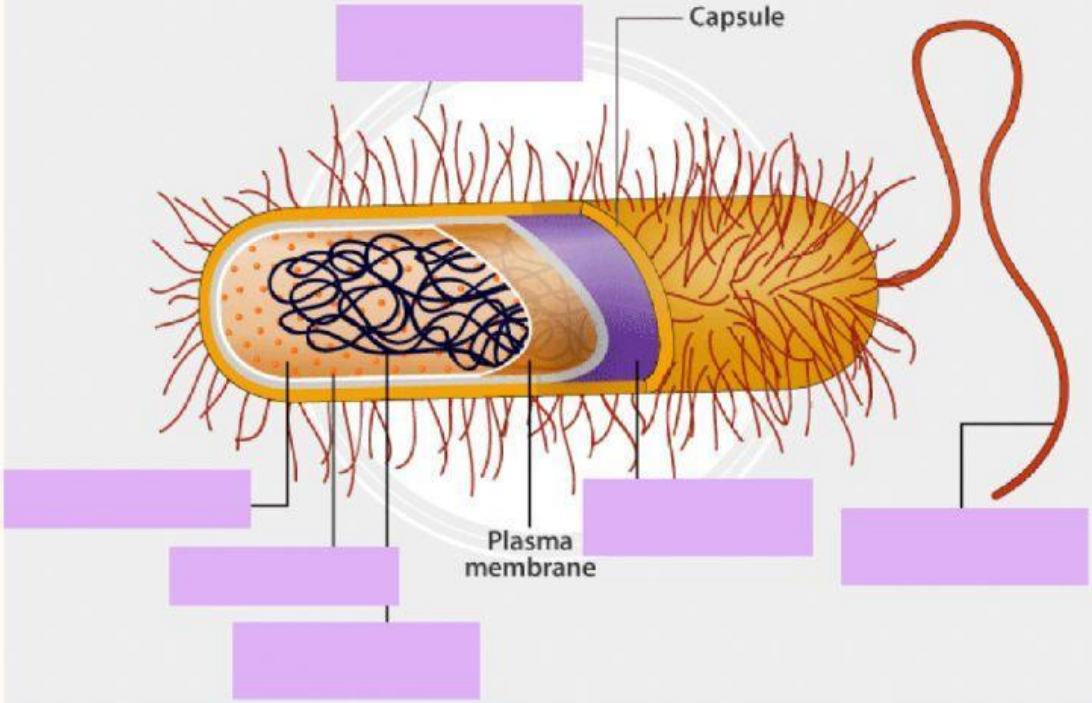

6.What is the most common cell wall component?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

KINGDOM MONERA

PILUS	FLAGELLM	RIBOSOME
CELL WALL	NUCLEOID	CYTOPLASM

MONERA

GOOD LUCK.

LIVEWORKSHEETS