

Listen to the dialogue and complete the gaps with the correct word.

Tom: Jim, are you anything?

Jim: Nothing much. I am to music and waiting for the rain to stop. I am baseball at 5:00.

Tom: You're always playing with your friends.

Jim: Don't say that. You know I play baseball Tuesday.

Tom: Do you want to play something with me for a ?

Jim: Like what? And don't say Monopoly, or scrabble. They are .

Tom: Yes, I bet it's boring when you always lose.

Jim: I don't care about losing.

Tom: Yeah You suggest something then.

Jim: How about darts?

Tom: That's not fair. You're tall and always get more .

Jim: Tommy, it's not who wins or but how you play the game!

Tom: You are right. then.