

Health

Diagnose prescription fever flu broken symptoms cold vaccine headache clinic virus antibiotics germs

ACROSS

3. When you are sick you often feel very hot. You have a
5. The 'signs' of a sickness. Things a doctor can see to help them know what illness you have.
8. If your head feels sore, we say you have a
9. When you feel sick, you book an appointment to see a doctor at a(place)
11. If you have a bacterial infection, the doctor may prescribe(medicine) to kill the bacteria.
12. Bacteria, viruses and other microscopically small things that cause diseases.

DOWN

1. A doctor looks at your symptoms and asks you how you feel. They then.....what illness you have.
2. The piece of paper a doctor gives you to show to a pharmacist so you can buy medicine.
3. A disease caused by a viral infection. It is more severe than a cold.
4. If you fall and break your arm, we say you have aarm.
6. A disease caused by a virus. Its symptoms are a runny nose and sneezing.
7. You get a ...to help your body learn how to fight a disease, so you don't get it.
10. A very tiny thing that causes diseases like the flu or colds.