- Read the blog about Bob's father's childhood memory.

Yes! That's what my son, Bob, said when I told him one of my best childhood memories. I was a mischievous boy. I loved to play with my sister Lucy; she is two years younger than me. My favorite childhood memory was many years ago, when I was eight years old, and my sister was six. It was the New Year's celebration and all my family got together to celebrate. One of my family's traditions is eating twelve grapes at night. I wanted to compete with my cousins and my sister, so I told them – "If you eat twelve grapes in a minute, I will give you one of my toys." They accepted, and we started to eat. Suddenly, a grape got stuck in my throat, and my cousin got scared. They didn't know what to do. Then, my sister gave me a glass of water, but it wasn't water. It was champagne! -Luckily, I didn't get drunk. Finally, I learned to share my toys.
