

Medical Conversations Worksheet #4R

Part A: Draw a line to match the picture to what the patient might say in each situation.

Excuse me, is this the x-ray department?

Thank you, nurse,
that didn't hurt at all.

I'm sorry, I don't understand - what does claustrophobic mean?

Good afternoon -
do you have my test results?

Part B: Drag and drop the Patient sentences into the correct location in the conversation below.

Here is the form the doctor gave me.

Could you please tell me how long the test will take?

I'm sorry, I don't understand. Could you please rephrase that?

No, this is my first time having an MRI.

Good afternoon, excuse me, is this the MRI department?

Thank you- that is not too long - I am ready to start now.

I'm not nervous or afraid - thank you for telling me.

Patient: _____

Nurse: Yes this is where you get an MRI, may I see your requisition form?

Patient: _____

Nurse: Thank you. Have you ever had an MRI before?

Patient: _____

Nurse: Are you claustrophobic?

Patient: _____

Nurse: Sure – are you afraid of small spaces? The MRI is a long tube and some people get nervous when they go inside.

Patient: _____

Nurse: Do you have any questions?

Patient: _____

Nurse: Yes – about 20 minutes.

Patient: _____
