The crossword puzzle grid is composed of squares. The word "BONE" is already filled in the grid, starting from the 4th square of the 3rd row and extending horizontally to the 9th square of the 3rd row. The letters are: B (row 3, col 4), O (row 3, col 5), N (row 3, col 6), and E (row 3, col 7). The grid is surrounded by illustrations of various objects with arrows pointing to the starting squares of the words to be written:

- A dog (top left) points to the 1st square of the 1st row.
- A train (top center) points to the 4th square of the 1st row.
- A ball (top right) points to the 10th square of the 1st row.
- A camel (middle left) points to the 1st square of the 2nd row.
- A hat (middle center) points to the 5th square of the 2nd row.
- An ear (bottom left) points to the 1st square of the 4th row.
