

RELATIVE PRONOUNS

We use WHO to talk about a person

This is my friend Sally, who likes ice-cream

We use WHICH to talk about an object, or an animal

This is a shell which I found on the beach

We use WHERE to talk about a place

This is the room where I get undressed for swimming

Complete the sentences using 'who, which or where'

1. The boy _____ drives that car is very rich.
2. The girl _____ has a red hat is in my class.
3. A swimming pool is a place _____ I can swim.
4. Tigers are animals _____ live in India.
5. A pen is an object _____ I use to write with.
6. The girl _____ is playing basketball in the playground is my sister.
7. The test _____ we're doing is very difficult.
8. The city _____ I live is very big.
9. A TV is an object _____ people usually have in their living-room.
10. The dog _____ is running behind that ball is mine.
11. The house _____ I live has got a blue door.
12. Children _____ don't study don't pass the exams.
13. A cat is an animal _____ likes fish.