13 Reading: My tiny house

Not many teenagers build their own homes, but 14-year-old Sicily isn't a typical teenager. Her little blue house, 'La Petite Maison', is 39 m². It's got a small kitchen with a cooker, fridge and sink, and a bathroom with a shower and toilet. There isn't a living room, but there's an armchair in front of the window. Sicily can read and relax there. There's a wardrobe under the stairs, with some shelves. And in the bedroom there's a special window, originally from her dad's boat.

The story of 'La Petite Maison'

THE STORY OF 'LA PETITE MAISON'

At the age of 12 ...

- Sicily decides to build a house for a school project.
- she draws the plans and writes a blog.
- Sicily's father teaches her a lot of practical skills.
- her father dies suddenly in a car accident.

Two months later ...

- Sicily decides to continue with the project.
- friends and volunteers help her with the roof and electricity.

After 18 months ...

- Sicily finishes 'La Petite Maison'.

Sicily's already planning her next project: rebuilding an old Volkswagen Beetle. Perhaps that's easier than building a house!

COMMENTS ▶ What do YOU think?

a) Read the text and answer the questions below

- 1 How old is Sicily?
- 2 What colour is Sicily's house?
- 3 What things are in the kitchen?
- 4 Has 'La Petite Maison' got a bathroom?
- 5 Where can Sicily read?
- 6 What is special about the bedroom window?

I think this little house is nicer than my house (and tidier, too)! 😊 It's got the tiniest bedroom possible! Is it the smallest house in the world?

Tiny houses are becoming more popular because they're cheaper and better for the environment. They are the most practical option for many people.
