

UNIT 11: NATURE IN DANGER

Task 1. Listen to the passage and decide if the following statements are true (T) Or false (F).

- 1. National parks protect and preserve the natural beauty of the land.
- 2. They usually contain a variety of scenic features.
- 3. All national parks are in danger of being destroyed.
- 4. Large areas of national parks can be destroyed by fire.
- 5. Visitors do not help to preserve and protect national parks.

Task 2. Listen again and choose the correct answer

1. How many national parks are there in the United States?
A. 2 B. 152 C. 52 D. 122
2. How many people visit national parks every year?
A. millions of people B. billions of people C. A few people D. no one
3. Why are rare animals killed or hunted?
A. for food B. for creature C. for pet D. for fur
4. Why is the increasing number of visitors harming the park?
A. the pollution from their vehicles B. the money they raise for fund
C. the maintenance they provide D. the waste from their food
5. What should we do to protect national parks? (you can choose many answers)
A. Rare animals and trees should be protected.
B. Cut down trees are for wood.
C. Fires caused by careless people should be limited.
D. Money should be raised for the parks' staff and maintenance of their sources.