What's a tongue twister?

Teacher Nan told the students there was going to be a pronunciation contest. She wanted each student to choose a different tongue twister to pronounce. She explained that a tongue twister is a group of words that are difficult to pronounce quickly and correctly. She gave them an example, "Freshly fried flying fish." Principal Pong was going to be the judge, and there would be a prize for the winner.

Sofiya and Noi knew they had to practice. They had one day to practice. Of course, Noi wanted to choose a hard one.

The contest took place the next day. Bobbie went first. Robby went second. Sofiya was after Robby. Then it was Noi's turn. He said, "A big black bug bit the big black bear, but the big black bear bit the big black bug back" two times. And guess what? He won!
