Read Nick's email to his friend, Robert. Then do the exercises on the next page.

Hi Robert,

How are you? I got all the pictures you sent me from your holidays. It seems you had a great time in the countryside. Well, let me tell you about my holiday. For the first time, we didn't spend our summer holidays by the sea, but we went camping in the mountains.

When my father first suggested a holiday in the mountains, nobody liked the idea. We all wanted to have a relaxing time by the sea as we do every year. My sister and I love swimming and playing on the beach and we were really looking forward to going to a nice hotel near the sea. Mum loves diving in the sea and she had already bought her new diving suit so she didn't want to change her plans. Then dad showed us a video of a mountain camp which his friend had given him. It was beautiful. The camp was on a flat area near the bottom of the mountain and right behind the camp there was a forest. The camp also had an amazing view of a lake which was a lot of kilometres away. When the video finished, we all agreed to go.

Dad and mom went shopping and bought everything we needed for our mountain holiday. On July 15, our holiday began. We drove four hours to reach the campsite. The first thing we did when we got there was to put up our tent. From then on, our wonderful adventure on the mountain started. During the day, we went mountain biking, explored the forest on foot and went fishing in a small boat. At night, we built a small fire and watched the stars. There were thousands of stars in the sky. This was the best part of the holiday.

We all enjoyed our time in the mountains and we all agreed to do it again. I'll send you some pictures, too.

Talk soon,

Nick

Read what Kate and Peter say about their friends.
Then do the exercises on the next page.

Kate

My name is Kate. I have a lot of friends, but Beth is my closest friend and I can't imagine my life without her. We have been friends since she moved to my neighbourhood ten years ago. Her house is behind mine and when we have free time, we always spend it together. Beth is very pretty. She is taller than I am and has straight brown hair and deep blue eyes. She has a kind heart and she likes spending time with her friends. Beth is also a good student and she often helps me with my homework. Her dream is to become a famous dancer and I really believe that one day she will make her dream come true. Last week she took part in a dance competition and won first prize.

Peter

My name is Peter. I am a shy person and I have very few friends. I have one good friend, however, who I have known for two years now. His name is Bob. I first met Bob at a school party. I was sitting alone in a corner and he came and talked to me. Bob is 16 years old, one year older than I am, but he always makes me feel very relaxed around him. I admire Bob a lot. He is one of the most popular students at school and he is a member of a music band. He plays the guitar and the piano. He is also an excellent swimmer and he taught me how to swim. Bob is a warm person and I'm very happy that he is my friend.
