

KNOW THE PARTS OF THE NEWS PAPER

In this report point out

The image shows the front page of 'THE TIMES OF INDIA' newspaper. The masthead at the top reads 'THE TIMES OF INDIA' in large, bold letters. Below it, a sub-headline states 'In Historic Move Within 100 Days Of Modi-2, Govt Bifurcates State Into 2 UTs, Defangs Article 370 & Scraps 35A'. The main headline is 'KASHMIR IS NOW UNION'S TERRITORY'. To the left of the main headline is a sub-headline 'J&K To Lose Special Status, Centre To Directly Rule Ladakh'. To the right is another sub-headline 'INDIA'S NORTH POLE SHIFTS TO CENTRE'. Below the main headline is a photograph of a street in Srinagar with barbed wire in the foreground. There are several text boxes with arrows pointing to different parts of the page: one points to the masthead, another to the main headline, a third to the sub-headline about J&K, a fourth to the sub-headline about India's North Pole, and a fifth to the photograph. There are also several small text boxes with arrows pointing to specific articles or sections on the page.
