

COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS

I. Rewrite the sentences in the plural.

1. There is a wooden chair in the kitchen.

→ There are some wooden chairs in the kitchen.

2. She is an old lady.

→

3. I have got a big schoolbag.

→

4. He is a tall boy.

→

5. There is a pretty butterfly on the window.

→

6. She is a clever student.

→

7. I have got a new hat.

→

8. She is a famous actress.

→

9. There is a white goose in the garden.

→

10. He has got a heavy suitcase.

→

II. Choose much, many, little, few, some, any, a lot to complete the sentences below.

1. We spent too _____ money on our last holiday.

2. Don't worry, we have _____ time.

3. Did _____ people come to your party?

4. I don't usually drink _____ beer.

5. It didn't take _____ effort to repaint the house.

6. I only speak _____ English.

7. There were only _____ people at the party.

8. I need _____ of sugar for the cake.

9. I hope it will rain. There isn't _____ water in the reservoir.

10. How _____ soap do you need?

III. Fill in the gaps with much, many, how much, how many.

1. There were _____ people in the streets.

2. Are there _____ new students this year?

3. There isn't _____ cheese left in the fridge.

4. _____ backpackers travel to the east coast every summer.

5. We went to that hotel because we didn't have _____ options.

6. _____ milk do you want in your coffee?

7. Not _____ people know his secret.

8. Was there _____ turbulence during the flight?

9. There are _____ things that I haven't told you yet.

10. _____ visitors does this museum have every day?

IV. Fill in the gaps with few, little, a few, a little.

1. 'Were there any people at the conference?' 'Yes, _____.'

2. There were _____ people on the beach because it was raining.

3. We have very _____ money, so we can't afford to buy a new car.

4. I've got _____ cranberries. Let's make a cake.

5. There is _____ coffee left. Would you like one?

6. We've bought _____ new cushions for the sofa.

7. I've got _____ money saved; I think I'll buy a new bike.

8. There are _____ things that I haven't told you. I always tell you everything.

9. I speak _____ English, so when I'm in England I don't have problems.

10. There's very _____ snow in the street. We don't need the snow boots.