Anansi Spider's Thin Legs

Author: Vanessa York

1. Anansi discovered that his idea to _____ was not really such a great idea after all.
   A. clean all the pots quickly
   B. steal food for his wife to cook
   C. set his friends' tables easily
   D. get food without helping out

2. What was it that Pig was cooking?
   A. Pig was cooking macaroni and cheese.
   B. He was making a pot of vegetable soup.
   C. He was preparing sweet potatoes and honey.
   D. Pig was preparing a batch of fresh vanilla yogurt.

3. What did Anansi smell as he walked past Rabbit's house?
   A. He smelled rotting garbage.
   B. Anansi smelled something burning.
   C. Rabbit's house smelled like flowers.
   D. Anansi smelled a delicious smell.

4. Anansi left his friends' houses before their food was ready because
   A. he felt it was rude to stay without being asked.
   B. he missed his mother and wanted to go home.
   C. he was too lazy to help them while he waited.
   D. the food smelled bad and he didn't want any.

5. How did Anansi feel as all of his legs were being stretched?
   A. He was afraid that his legs would be pulled off.
   B. Anansi worried that he would become too tall.
   C. The stretching felt great and he was ready to exercise.
   D. Anansi wondered if his wife had finished cooking dinner.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. After Anansi rolled himself into the river,
    A. a boat crashed into his legs and bruised them.
    B. he began to drift straight towards a waterfall.
    C. he was rescued by a family of friendly beavers.
    D. the water freed him from the sticky web strings.

7. Once Anansi had a string tied to each of his legs, he
    A. sat down at the river and waited for dinner.
    B. climbed up a tree and built his web.
    C. began to knit his wife a sweater.
    D. spun around and around until he was dizzy.

8. Even though Anansi had lots of food of his own, he
    A. refused to let his wife cook any of his food.
    B. liked to eat the food his friends cooked, too.
    C. did not like to eat very much.
    D. had no pots to cook his food.

9. Anansi's legs were becoming thinner and thinner because
    A. his eight children tugged them when they needed something.
    B. he was stretching to reach food at the end of the table.
    C. his friends were pulling on the strings tied to them.
    D. he hadn't eaten in weeks and was starting to lose weight.

10. Anansi asked his friends to _____ when their food was ready.
    A. tug on his web
    B. ring a loud bell
    C. yell his name
    D. call his phone

LIVEWORKSHEETS