

Nisa's picnic at the park

Nisa and her family were going for a picnic at Berakas Recreational Park. Nisa helped her mother to pack the picnic. They packed cups, twisties, fruit and orange juice. They packed a blanket to sit on. Nisa packed a rubbish bag so that they could bring their rubbish home. They stopped at Ayamku and bought chicken and rice. Nisa was excited. She could not wait to get to the park. She wanted to play on the swings. After that, she would go for a walk in the jungle. She wondered if she would see any animals. They all got into the car and drove to the park.

Name: _____

Choose the correct answers

1. Where were Nisa and her family going?
2. Why were they going there?
3. What did they take for their picnic?
4. Why did Nisa take a rubbish bag?
5. What did they buy at Ayamku?
6. What did Nisa want to do when she got to the park?
7. What did Nisa hope to see at the park?

'Nisa took a rubbish bag so that they could take their rubbish home'

The word 'so' is a conjunction.

Conjunction is a word to connect two sentences.

Example:

I was thirsty. I drank a cup of water.

I was thirsty so I drank a cup of water.

Now combine two sentences correctly.

my teacher scolded me.

I need my raincoat.

I threw it away.

I hid under the bed.

1. It is raining so

2. I didn't do my homework so

3. I didn't like the food so

4. I was scared