

Prepositions of time

 AT	(a time) (a festival) At ten o'clock, at half past 6 At Christmas, at Easter At night
 ON	(a day) (a date) On Monday, on my birthday On 1st May, on 23rd June
 IN	(a year) (a month) (a century) (a season) (a time of day) In 1980 In May In 20th century In (the) summer, in (the) winter In the morning, in the afternoon, in the evening

Write the correct preposition

Jenny and Penny start school _____ nine o'clock _____ the morning. They have lunch _____ twelve, and they finish _____ three thirty _____ the afternoon. They don't go to school _____ Saturday or _____ Sunday. Their summer holidays start _____ July and finish _____ September. And they have two or three weeks' holiday _____ Easter and Christmas. Jenny's birthday is _____ 15th November and Penny's birthday is _____ 2nd July. They were born _____ 1999. _____ Sunday morning they usually go to the park and _____ the evening they play on the computer. _____ night they have a shower and watch TV. They usually go to the mountains _____ the summer.