True or false? T F

1) Many superstitions are based on religion. T F
2) Number 13 was associated with the biblical Last Supper. T F
3) Buildings around the world slip the 15th floor. T F
4) Knocking on wood comes from the belief that trees were home to various demons. T F
5) Touching a tree would invoke the protection or the blessing of an animal living inside. T F
6) Italians fear the number 16. T F
7) Vixi means "My life has ended" T F
8) In Greek, the word for the number 4 sounds like the word "death". T F
9) Whistling backstage is a taboo because it used to cause accidents. T F
10) Lighting three cigarettes with the same match could cause bad luck. T F
11) Most superstitions are based on cultural habit. T F
12) Superstitions give you the illusion of having greater control over the events. T F