

DESCRIBING YOURSELF

USING ADJECTIVES TO DESCRIBE PEOPLE

Activities

1. Use the adjectives in the red box to complete the sentences (a-j): (No need to use some adjectives) plump / middle aged / wavy / bald / cute / elegant / dark-skinned / good looking / big-eyed / old / tall / slim.

- My grampa is more than 85 . He is a very _____ man.
- My sister has a long _____ hair.
- She loves fast food, now she looks very _____ .
- We think that an _____ man always wears a suit with a tie.
- My niece is an afroamerican person, she is a _____ young girl.
- Girls think that Leo Di Caprio is a _____ actor.
- To be a good basketball player, you need to be _____.
- She makes physical activities everyday. Her body now looks very _____ .
- Some _____ young men don't like their look and they wear a hat or cap.
- A baby is always very _____ .

2. Match the synonyms

- thin
- short
- good-looking
- beautiful
- in her 40's
- athletic
- elderly
- ugly
- young
- plump

- juvenile
- unattractive
- slim
- muscular (well-built)
- old
- small
- overweight
- attractive
- middle-aged
- pretty

2. Write the opposites to the following words.

- ugly - _____
- elderly - _____
- thin - _____
- elegant - _____
- tall - _____
- straight hair - _____
- fat lady - _____
- light hair - _____
- small eyes - _____
- muscular - _____