Ancient History of the Iberian Peninsula

Match the civilizations on the left to their descriptions on the right.

Phoenicians	Their culture contained elements of both Celtic and Iberian culture
Greeks	They founded Empuries (Ampurias) and Rhode (Roses)
Carthaginians	Their language derived from the Tartessian language
Tartessos	They founded the city of Gadir (Cádiz)
Turdetani	It was located at the mouth of the Guadalquivir River
Iberians	They were from Carthage, located in northern Africa
Celtiberians	They created a large empire that lasted from 753 BC to 476 AD
Romans	They occupied the Mediterranean coast as of 1100 BC