A/AN SOME/ANY

1. Petra is going on a holiday to Spain. These are the things she is taking with her. Match the pictures 1-12 with the words below.

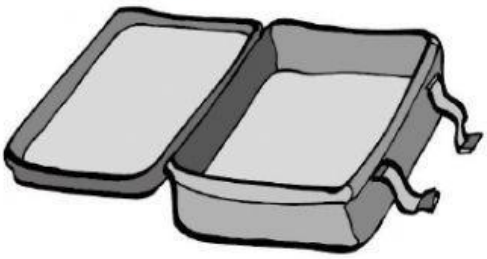

passport _____
sunhats _____
Spanish–English dictionary _____ book _____
credit cards _____
swimsuit _____
sunglasses _____ magazines _____
laptop _____
mobile phone _____ pen _____ clothes _____

2. Choose eight items that Petra has in her bag. Write them in the correct column.

There is a...

_____
_____
_____
_____

There are some...

_____
_____
_____
_____

3. Read the following conversations and choose the correct answer.

Conversation 1

A: Can I have [1]a / an coffee, and [2]a / some cakes, please?

B: Sorry, we don't have [3]some / any cakes.

A: What? But this sign says 'cakes'.

B: Yes, but there are [4]some / a lot of people here today.

A: OK, can I have [5]a / an egg sandwich then?

Conversation 2

A: Excuse me. I don't speak Spanish. Do you have [6]a / any newspapers in English?

B: Yes, there's [7]a / an American newspaper here, but it's from yesterday.

A: You don't have [8]a / an English newspaper?

B: No, we usually have [9]some / an English newspapers but not today.

Conversation 3

A: Hello, I want to study English and I have [10]a / some questions.

B: OK.

A: Are there [11]any / a lot of students in the classes?

B: No, we have small classes – only twelve students in a class. There aren't [12]some / any big classes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS