My best friend is Jason. I've known him for (0) nearly two years. That's when he moved to Cardiff from Oxford. He lives (1) near my house (2) five minutes on foot. Jason is tall with short black hair. He's got many hobbies and interests. Many of them we like to do together. He's (3) keen on sport, (4) rugby and mountain biking. And he (5) likes tennis. He plays it every weekend. He's always at the sports centre or at the park. Those are definitely his favourite places to go at the weekend. Jason is funny and always makes me laugh. He's honest too, and he never talks about me to our other friends. These are some of the reasons why he's my best friend.
