

Beaconhouse School System

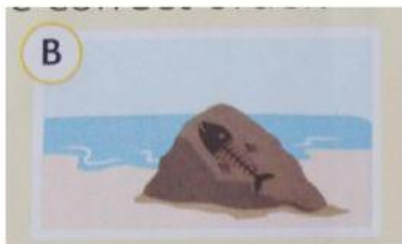

Kindergarten Campus

North Nazimabad

Instructions: Match the sentences below to the pictures.

After death, mud or sand covered some animals.

More bits of rock covered the rotting animals. They were washed down by rivers.

The hard parts of the animals remained. They were squashed and covered by new rock.

After a very long time, the land changed and the animal remains changed to rock. We call these fossils.