

Fill in the gaps with the verbs below.

evade

indolence

oblivious

elusive

allay

ventured

perpetual

mitigate

stout

- 1.Elizabeth stood at the piano which did nothing to her anxiety.
- 2.Morphine may be given hypodermically to the pain.
- 3.The released criminal tries to the police.
- 4.The climate of Caracas is often described as that of spring.
- 5.Rabbits are speedy so they are , too.
- 6.She her fortune on a deal.
- 7.His incurable and love of pleasure prevented him from taking any active part in affairs.
- 8.He was so because he was walking out into the street without looking to see if a car is coming.
- 9.He has a and well-developed body covered with muscles and fat.

