

English Year 4

Week 8 (21st February 2022)

Pea-Sized Frog

This frog is small. Males can grow up to 10mm long. Females can grow up to 16mm long. It is brown with webbed feet. This frog lives on pitcher plants that grow in the rainforest.

Pea-sized frog's main diet are small bugs like ants. This frog looks for food at night and sleeps in the day. It sings when the sun is going down. It lays its eggs inside pitcher plants. This frog is not endangered. There are a large number of these frogs living in Borneo.

Comprehension questions

1. How long can a female pea-sized frog grow?

2. What are its feet like?

3. Where does this frog live?

4. What does this frog eat?

5. What does this frog do in the day?

6. Where does it lay its eggs?

Main Ideas and Supporting details.

Read the text again. Identify the main idea of the text and the details that tell you more about the main idea.

Physical Characteristics:

Dangers:

Diet:

Habitat:

Behaviour:

How small is a pea-sized frog?

Go around your house and find 2 objects that are as small as a pea-sized frog.