

Plant growth and nutrition

What do plants need to grow?

Plants need to grow.

Where can these plant grow?

The amount of light a plant needs varies from plant to plant.

bright area

humid area

hot area

CACTUS

LAVENDER

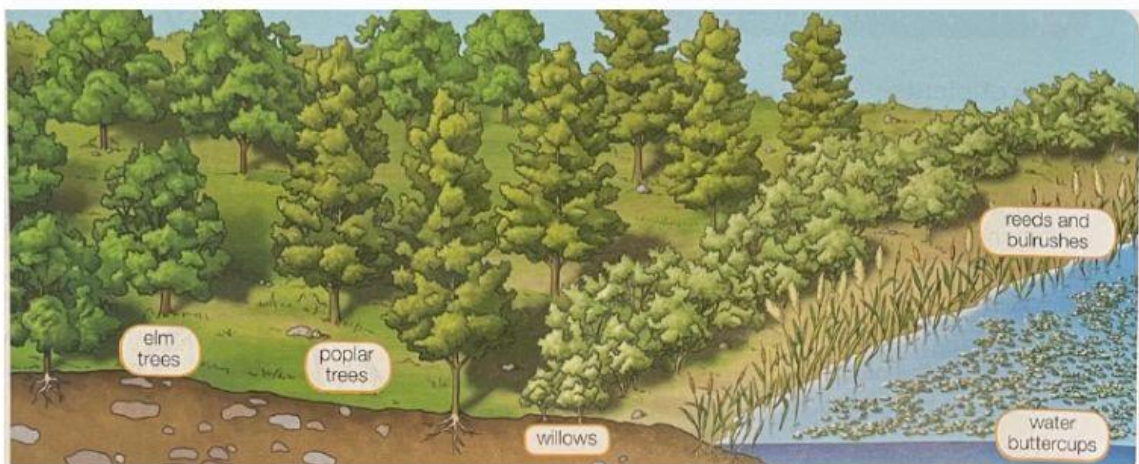

MOSS

The amount of water a plant needs varies from plant to plant.

Look at the picture and choose the correct words to complete the sentences.

1. _____ grow in _____ because they need a _____ supply of water to grow.
2. _____ and bulrushes grow very _____ to water because they need _____ to grow.
3. _____ can grow _____ from water because they need _____ to grow.

Complete the sentences with the correct word.

- 1. Plants take in _____ from the air to make their food.
- 2. Plants absorb water and mineral salts through their _____.
- 3. Most plants grow in _____ soil which is rich in water and mineral salts.

Plants need the right temperature to grow.
Where can these plants grow?

low temperature

mild temperature

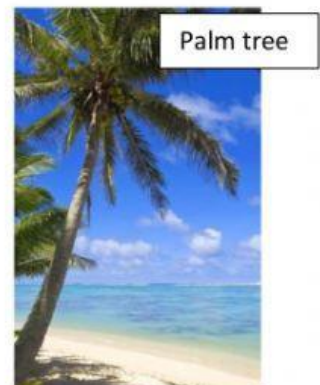

high temperature

Fir tree

Beech tree

Palm tree
