

1. Read the next text and choose the correct quantifier.

Cape Town is home to many/ plenty of different cultures; a few local cultures and a lot of foreign national cultures. Immigrants from a little / a large number of African countries have settled at the southern tip of Africa; quite a few/ a great deal of people for business reasons and others simply for the diversity and peaceful lifestyle this city has to offer. A fair number of/ little tourists visit the Mother City. A visit to Cape Town is guaranteed to include much/few fun. There are a lot of/ a lot restaurants that serve a variety of interesting cuisines. There are plenty of/a fair number of chefs and waitress that are trained. Both/ all are trained in great universities for that job. Also, there are a fair number of/a fair amount of outdoor activities. Mountain hikes, picnics in the botanical gardens or on the many beaches.

It is a fact that there is a lot of crime everywhere in South Africa but all/none of the policemen have been working hard to fight crime. In Cape Town plenty of/many of time and resources have been dedicated to bring an awful lot of systems in place, e.g. the training of and employment of little/quite a few additional policeman and security guards who patrol the streets at night. Anyone who spends even just a little/a few time in Cape Town wants to return. It is a vibrant and colorful city and well worth visiting. None of/ neither of them want to miss the opportunity to travel to Cape Town.

LIVEWORKSHEETS