Amphibians and Reptiles

Fill in the blanks with the correct answers.

1. Most amphibians live in the _____ and part of their life on _____.
2. Amphibians lay _____ in water.

3. They have _____ to get the oxygen they need from water.
4. As they grow, they begin to develop legs and _____.
5. The gills change into _____ so they can breathe in air.

6. Most amphibians have smooth and _____ skin.
7. Most reptiles live on _____ but some animals, such as sea turtles, spend most of the time in _____.

8. Reptiles have _____ to breathe in air.
9. Reptiles that live in water need to come to the _____ to breathe.
10. Most reptiles reproduce by laying _____.

11. Reptiles have _____ covered with scales.
12. The scales help to protect them from _____.

Thank you, Class

Stay safe and stay healthy!

LIVEWORKSHEETS