

PAST PERFECT

Combine the two sets of sentences. Use the past perfect tense to indicate the action that happened first.

1. Sam passed the biology test. She studied a lot.
2. Kathy refused to open Bill's letter. He insulted her at the party.
3. Harry didn't get wet. Harry took an umbrella.
4. I missed the train yesterday. I woke up late.
5. I didn't recognize Seth this morning. He shaved his beard.
6. Ian didn't want to go to the movies. He saw that movie last month.
7. The students got a medal. They won a math contest.
8. Dave was exhausted. He worked the night shift.