

It's a strap around an animal's neck that is used to attach a lead.

a collar

It's the rope or other material used to stop an animal running away.

a leash

Match the verbs and their explanations.

to bark

to move slowly

to walk a dog

to bite

the way of guarding or of keeping others at fear

to go on a walk with a dog
to take a dog out on a walk

to howl

to make a short loud sound usually when the dog is angry

to whine

the way the dog swings its tail

to crawl

to make a long loud sound

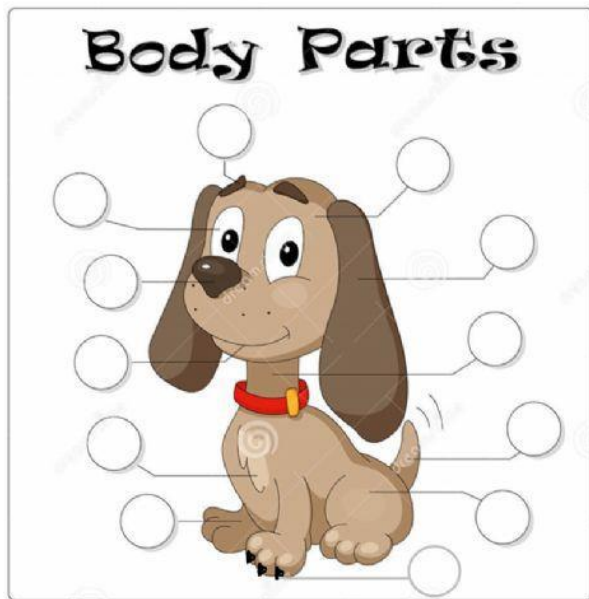

to wag

to use the mouth and teeth
to hold sth or someone

to growl

to make a high noise usually because the dog wants sth

A puppy

- | | | | |
|------------|---------|----------|--------------|
| 1. head | 4. ear | 7. mouth | 10. tail |
| 2. body | 5. eye | 8. neck | 11. leg, paw |
| 3. eyebrow | 6. nose | 9. fur | 12. claw |

Listen to the extract of the story (pp. 108-109 Student's Book). And decide if the statements are true, false or not stated.

True: _____
False: _____
Not stated: _____

claws

the extremity of a dog's spine

paws

a dog's "moustache"

a tail

a dog's nose

a snout

a dog's hair

fur

a dog's nails

whiskers

a dog's feet and hands

- Weedon couldn't go home because of a serious injury.
- He wrote a note to his family.
- White Fang was an Arctic animal.
- White Fang knew the way home.
- Weedon was sure that his dog would return soon.
- White Fang understood all his master's words.
- White Fang obeyed the master because his voice was very serious and sharp.
- All the family was happy that White Fang was home.
- White Fang growled because he didn't like the children.
- One day White Fang bit the children.
- Weedon thought that White Fang was a half-dog and a half-wolf.
- White Fang was growling fiercely because he wanted to eat.
- The wolf became the centre of attention because he looked funny.
- The people couldn't understand what the wolf wanted to express.
- It was hard for White Fang to live in a warm climate.
- White Fang barked only twice during his life.