

Meet Nellie Bly, who is the _____ (pierwsza) person to travel around the world in 72 days. She was born in 1864 in the USA and died in 1922.

Nellie Bly loved reading books and writing. She became _____ (dziennikarka). One day she read a book by Jules Verne "Around the World in Eighty Days" about a man who travelled around the world in 80 days. She wanted to do it too! People told her that a lonely _____ (podróż) is very _____ (niebezpieczna). But Nellie was brave and strong, so she decided to travel alone.

She travelled by ship across the _____ (ocean) to England. Then she went to France, and then to Asia. She travelled by boat, train and by foot. She ate new food and met _____ (ciekawych) people. People read about her journey in newspapers all over the world. When she came back to America, after 72 days, she was very _____ (popularna). She showed that everyone can do _____ (trudne) things.

Nellie Bly Travelled 25 000 miles in 72 days. It was a very _____ (długa) trip and she was _____ (zmęczona) but _____ (szczęśliwa) to be back home.